

About

- The National COVID-19 Equipment Clearinghouse connecting Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) suppliers to those who need it most, the healthcare providers at the frontline.
- Working with governments to determine where demand is and where it is most urgent - it is a tool designed to gather data as efficiently as possible to assist in distribution efforts.
- Comprehensive operation to verify the suppliers around the world in order to deliver a pre-vetted list of protective equipment suppliers to healthcare providers
